Kenſington, June the 1ſt. 1710.

This Day the following Addreſs was Preſented to Her Majeſty by the Right Honourable Sir John Holland, Barronet, Comptroller of Her Majeſty's Houſhold, and Aſh Windham, Eſq; Knights of the Shire for the County of Norfolk, accompany'd by ſeveral Gentlemen of the ſaid County, and the City of Norwich, Introduc'd by his Grace the Duke of Devonſhire, Lord Steward of Her Majeſty's Houſhold: Which Addreſs Her Majeſty receiv'd very Graciouſly; and all the Gentlemen had the Honour of Kiſſing Her Majeſty's Hand.

To the Queen's moſt Excellent MAJESTY.

The Humble Addreſs of the Deputy-Lieutenants, Militia Officers, Gentlemen, and Others of the City of NORWICH.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

THIS with inexpreſſible Concern we obſerve Your Reign made Uneaſy by Miſtaken and Ill-Deſigning Perſons, ſo induſtriouſly keeping up Diſtinctions and Diviſions amongſt Your Subjects, contrary to Your Majeſty's repeated Recommendations of UNION. It might, with great Reaſon, have been expected, that the unparallel'd Wiſdom and Goodneſs, with which You Exerciſe Your Government, would have compoſed Your Subjects into an univerſal Acquieſcence in Your Conduct; and that the Miniſtry You have ſo Wiſely made Choice of, and who have acquitted themſelves with great Prudence and Fidelity to Your Majeſty and their Country, ſhould not have been ſo Invidiouſly ſtruck at. The ill Treatment Your Majeſty, They, and Your Great Council, meet with, we heartily Lament, and Deſire that our Deteſtation of this kind of Behaviour may be Recorded to Poſterity.

We are at a Loſs to account for the Carriage of ſome Perſons, who, in Notion, maintain an unlimited Submiſſion to be due to the Worſt of Princes, and yet, in Practice, diſcharge their Obedience ſo imperfectly to the BEST. Whilſt by unfair Inſinuations they repreſent Your Majeſty as wanting in Your Care of the Church of England, notwithſtanding the great Bounty You have ſhown to the Clergy of it; the bright Example You are in it, and Your reitterated Profeſſions of Your true Concern for the ſame. But as the Reverſe of what we Complain of, we Declare our great Satisfaction in Your Adminiſtration, and are perſwaded the Impartial World will joyn with us in doing Juſtice to Your Majeſty in that reſpect. We Humbly aſſure Your Majeſty (whom God long preſerve) of our readineſs, at all Times, to defend Your Perſon and Government againſt the Pretender, and all his open and ſecret Abettors, and all other Your Enemies, and to maintain the Church of England, and the Proteſtant Succeſſion in the Illuſtrious Houſe of Hannover; and that we ſhall, in every Reſpect, demean our Selves as becomes Good Subjects to the Beſt of PRINCES.

We hope, That theſe Approaches of Your People to You, which ſhould be an Inſtance of their Reſpect to Your Majeſty, ſhall not be made uſe of to put Difficulties upon You: But that all Your Subjects will continually Study to make Your Reign Eaſie, who have done all that a Wiſe and Good Prince could do to make them ſo.

We beg leave to Congratulate Your Majeſty upon the ſucceſsful Opening of this Campaign, and hope it preſages an approaching PEACE, that will be Glorious to Your Majeſty in procuring It, and Safe to Your Dominions, and the Nations in Alliance with You; and that Peace may be Eſtabliſh'd at Home, as well as Abroad, and thereby Your Majeſty's full Intentions for the Happineſs of Your People, the better be Obtain'd, we ſhall, with utmoſt Care, upon all Occaſions, Cultivate a good Accord with our Fellow Subjects; in Teſtimony whereof, we moſt Heartily and Chearfully hereunto Subſcribe,

Your Majeſty's moſt Obedient, and moſt Faithful

Subjects and Servants.
